POSITION OVERVIEW

The Judicial Assistant (JA) is a permanent staff member in the Judge's chambers. The successful candidate will have a pleasant and positive attitude, excellent organizational skills, the ability to act as the institutional memory of a small office with a staff of law clerks that turns over annually, and the initiative to ensure smooth-running operations.

The JA will receive and assist visitors; answer phones and screen calls; transcribe machine dictation for the Judge into final form; prepare correspondence and reports; help the Judge manage her involvement with various judicial committees and events; maintain office functionality, from ordering supplies to coordinating technical assistance; and routinely maintain contact lists and the law clerk database.

The JA is also responsible for the administrative aspects of preparing the Judge for calendar. These include performing case checks for potential conflicts of interest, organizing calendar materials, acquiring and returning court records, reminding clerks of critical deadlines, preparing expense reports, making travel arrangements, filing, and inputting data into and submitting the Judge's annual financial disclosure report. The JA will actively handle case management on the Chambers database on an ongoing basis, and will prepare and circulate weekly reports based on current data.

ABOUT THE COURT

The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals is one of 12 federal appellate courts. Circuit courts hear appeals from the district (trial) courts located within their circuit, as well as appeals from decisions of federal administrative agencies. Headquartered in San Francisco with courthouses in Pasadena, Seattle and Portland, the Court serves nine western states, Guam and the Mariana Islands.

The Pasadena courthouse is located at 125 South Grand Avenue in Old Town. This is a beautifully-restored historic landmark, conveniently located just off the 210 and five minutes from the 110 in a picturesque residential neighborhood. In addition to award-winning architecture and beautiful landscaping, the courthouse has free parking directly across the street.
