Position: Conference and Training Assistant
Location: San Francisco, CA
Classification Level/Salary: CL-23/24 ($37,472 - $67,449) Depending on qualifications
Closing Date: Thursday, April 16, 2015 (or until position is filled)

Organization

The Office of the Circuit Executive provides policy development, administrative and staff support to: (1) the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council (pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 332), a governing board of federal judges with jurisdiction over the federal courts in nine western states, Guam, and the Northern Mariana Islands; (2) the Chief Circuit Judge; (3) the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; and (4) the federal courts within the Ninth Circuit. The Ninth Circuit, headquartered in San Francisco, is the largest federal circuit in the United States. For additional information on our organization, functions, staff, or employment benefits, visit our web site at <http://www.ca9.uscourts.gov>. Incumbent will work under the supervision of the Assistant Circuit Executive (ACE) for Judicial Conference and Education.

Duties and Responsibilities

1. Responsible for providing administrative support for the Conference and Education Unit activities and programs, primarily for the annual Ninth Circuit Judicial Conference (Conference), other circuit-related conferences, workshops, and meetings, such as the New Judges Orientation, and programs organized by the Education Programs Administrator coordinating programs for the Pacific islands. Coordinates Conference registration and event management in collaboration with the web site developer and Conference planners. Organizes on-site Conference logistics and coordination with Circuit Executive Conference staff. Registers speakers' and special guests' information, contacts individual participants to resolve problems, answer questions, or follows up and collects funds on existing balances of conference attendees.
2. Receives, accounts for, and supervises the deposit of funds, and processes all refunds related to the Conference. Follows a system of internal controls to assure proper segregation of accounting functions and error prevention.
3. Oversees and schedules on-site coordination, provides staff support at the Conference site and assists in organizing the work of Conference registration desk staff, registering participants, distributing materials and providing required administrative support, tracking, and accounting for attendance for special events. Responsible for production of Conference materials that may involve printing, assembly, and oversight of shipment of equipment and materials.
4. Copies, collates and distributes agenda materials for committee meetings and programs as requested. Arranges conference calls, proofreads and assembles information for minutes, reports, and studies; and maintains unit files and Conference supplies. Assists with organization of committee dinners and lunches.
5. Prepares Excel reports and payment forms for monthly Pacific Island credit card statements, makes hotel reservations for individual judges, as requested, and prepares purchase orders and assists in preparing the annual report for the Department of Interior.
6. Tracks program-related expenses for Pacific Island education programs, prepares cover sheets for invoices, enters data in financial spreadsheets, and maintains fiscal year binders with invoices and receipts organized by grant.
7. Summarizes evaluation forms from education surveys and assessments. Posts periodic updates to websites: the Pacific Judicial Council, the Lawyer Representatives and others as needed.
