- A motion should provide the position of the opposing party. See Advisory Committee Note to Rule 27-1(5). See also 9th Cir. R. 31-2.2(b)(6)(statement regarding the position of opposing party or a statement about why that information is unavailable required in motions for extensions of time).
- Facsimile or electronic filing is permitted only in urgent circumstances and only with advance authorization from staff. 9th Cir. R. 25-3.1.

argued, is under submission or that has been decided by a panel, must include the date of argument, submission or decision. If known, you must also include the names of the judges on the panel. 9th Cir. R. 25-4.

B. Emergency or Urgent Motions - Circuit Rule 27-3

- ★ All emergency and urgent motions must conform with the provisions of 9th Cir. R. 27-3. Motions requesting procedural relief do NOT fall within the types of matters contemplated by 9th Cir. R. 27-3.
- ★ Prior to filing any emergency motion, the moving party MUST contact an attorney in the Motions Unit in San Francisco at (415) 355-8020.
- ★ Emergency motions shall be filed in San Francisco. If action is needed on the same or next day, and counsel has not been dilatory in seeking relief, after speaking with the Motions attorney on duty, counsel may be directed to file the emergency motion in one of the divisional offices or, in some cases, with an individual circuit judge. On the other hand, if it appears that the motion can be processed by the monthly motions panel despite the expedited circumstances, counsel will be directed to file the motion in San Francisco.
- ★ When it is absolutely necessary to notify the court of an emergency requiring its attention outside of standard office hours, the movant shall call (415) 355-8509. This line is monitored by court staff. Keep in mind that this line is for true emergencies that cannot wait until the next business day, such as emergencies that involve an imminent execution or removal from the United States.

C. Motions to Stay Removal/Deportation/Voluntary Departure

- ★ The filing of a motion to stay removal/deportation temporarily stays the order of removal/deportation until further order of this court. Deleon v. INS, 115 F.3d 643 (9th Cir. 1997); General Order 6.4(c)(1) (General Orders of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals).
- ★ Any such motion must discuss the merits of the petition and the specific hardships that petitioner will suffer if removed. Abassi v. INS, 143 F.3d 513 (9th Cir. 1998).
- ★ A motion for stay of removal filed within the time set for voluntary departure granted by the agency is deemed to include a request to stay the voluntary departure period and the temporary stay provisions of General Order 6.4(c) will apply to the voluntary departure request as well. Desta v. Ashcroft, 365 F.3d 741 (9th Cir. 2004).
- ★ If the motion is filed with the petition for review, the briefing schedule will be set upon this court's resolution of the motion. G.O. 6.4(c)(1).
- ★ If no such motion is filed with the petition for review, a briefing schedule will be set and there will be no stay in place.
- ★ A later filed motion vacates the existing briefing schedule.
- ★ The record is due 8 weeks (56 days) from the filing of the motion for a stay and the response to the motion is due 4 weeks (28 days) from the filing of the record.
- ★ If respondent fails to submit a response within the time set, the silence will be construed as a statement of non-opposition, a briefing schedule will be set and the stay will continue absent further order of the court. G.O.6.4(c)(1).
- ★ Any reply is due 5 days from service of the opposition.

D. Motions for Extensions of Time to File the Briefs

- ❑ The briefing schedule is based on the respondent filing the certified administrative record by the scheduled date. If the record is late, the court will revise the schedule. Accordingly, petitioner need not make a motion to adjust the schedule whenever the record is late.
- ❑ If no motion for stay is filed together with the petition for review, the court will issue a briefing schedule when it docket the petition.
- ❑ 9th Cir. R. 27-11 lists the impact of several other motions on the briefing schedule.
- ❑ Specific due dates set by the court are not subject to the additional 3-day service time described in Fed. R. App. P. 26(c).
- ❑ The filing of petitioner's brief before the due date does not advance the due date for respondent's brief. 9th Cir. R. 31-2.1.

R. 31-2.2(b).
