USC Law Internship to Honor Late Senior Circuit Judge Warren J. Ferguson

SAN FRANCISCO – The University of Southern California Gould School of Law has established an endowment to fund a summer internship honoring the late Senior Circuit Judge Warren J. Ferguson of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Judge Ferguson died June 25 at age 87.

The "Judge Warren J. Ferguson Public Interest Summer Fellowship " will fund an annual summer internship for a talented and passionate law student interested in working full time on a public interest issue.

Donations can be made by credit card online at <https://mylaw.usc.edu/portal/alumni/donate.cfm>. Use the "Comments" box on the web page to note that the donation is being made to the Judge Warren J. Ferguson Public Interest Summer Fellowship fund. Also available online is a form that can be faxed to the school with credit card information. Donations by check should be made out to the Judge Warren J. Ferguson Public Interest Summer Fellowship and mailed to:

USC Gould School of Law
