Defendants.

Case No. 1:12-cv-00173-EJL

JUDGMENT RE: PLAINTIFF
RICHARD LEAVITT

In this Court's Memorandum Decision and Order filed on June 4, 2012, the Court granted Defendants' 12(b) Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff Richard Leavitt's claims based on his failure to exhaust administrative remedies before joining this lawsuit, and the Court alternatively denied Leavitt's Emergency Motion for Preliminary Injunction or Stay of Execution. (Dkt. 36.)

Under Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court finds that because Plaintiff Leavitt's claims have been dismissed for lack of exhaustion, and because his execution date is scheduled for June 12, 2012, there is no just reason to delay entering Judgment against Leavitt for purposes of appellate review.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Plaintiff Leavitt's claims against Defendants are DISMISSED without prejudice. This Judgment does not terminate the case or affect the claims or rights of the remaining Plaintiffs.
