Declaration of David G. Overholt

I, David G. Overholt, declares under penalty of perjury the following to be true to the best of my information and belief:

1. My name is David G. Overholt, Esq. I am an attorney licenced to practice law in the State of California with an office in Los Angeles, California.

2. I served as a member of the Board of Directors and as a Trustee for the McKinley Home for Boys Foundation from 1978 through 1988. I became involved with the McKinley Home for Boys through my association with the Klwanis Club.

3. While I was on the Board, the Board dismissed Burton Waterson from his position as administrator of the McKinley Home for Boys. Waterson's dismissal was the result of a state agency investigation of inappropriate sexual contact between Waterson and some residents of McKinley. Waterson did not challenge his dismissal, and the entire process occurred very quickly.

4. During the investigation of Waterson, there was discussion about a "peek-a-boo room" at McKinley. There were statements about a one-way mirror that looked into this room, which served as a time-out room for the boys who misbehaved.

I certify under PENALTY OF PERJURY under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing paragraph is true and correct.

Signed this 23rd day of November, 2010.

EXHIBIT 17

Declaration of Howard Smith Bennett

I, Howard Smith Bennett, declare under penalty of perjury the following to be true to the best of my information and belief:

1. I was employed as a house parent and senior house parent at the McKinley Home for Boys in San Dimas California from 1972 to approximately 1977. I was working towards my BA in sociology at Cal Poly Pomona.
2. As a house parent, my duties included caring for up to 24 boys in a cottage at the group home which consisted of waking the children and preparing them for breakfast and school, seeing that they cleaned their rooms, and helping them with homework.
3. The boys I cared for were between 13 and 16 years of age. The boys came to the home through one of three sources, the Department of Social Health Services (DSHS), the Probation Department and some were privately placed in the Home. I was not involved in intake and only knew that the boys were admitted through one of these three services.
4. I recall that Dan Cook was a resident in my cottage. I remember that he lived at the facility for approximately one year, though I cannot recall exactly how long he was there.
5. I developed a relationship with Dan, as I did other children at the facility, as a "big brother" type of caregiver. During my off hours I would help with recreation by taking the children to the beach or to the movies. I would share cigarettes with Dan and other children.
6. I remember two incidents of sexual contact with Dan Cook, which I initiated. During the first incident, I invited Dan into my room for a cigarette and began to touch him. During that occurrence, I manually masturbated Dan. During the second incident Dan performed oral sex on me at my request. I may have also had oral sex with Dan. Both incidents occurred in my room within the cottage.

7. Dan left the McKinley facility and went to another facility in Lancaster, California. About one year after he left, I was invited to visit with him, but do not recall how I was invited to see him. I did meet with Dan, had dinner with Dan and his group home family. I spoke with Dan on a bridge in Lancaster for about an hour and apologized to Dan for the way things turned out. I did not specifically mention the abuse during the apology because I as so embarrassed, but I believe Dan knew I was talking about the sexual contact. I looked at the event as closure as I realized I would never see Dan again.

8. I know that my actions did not help Dan and was very upset to learn of Dan's current incarceration on death row. I own part of the responsibility of Dan's situation and believe that my actions contributed to his actions which led to his incarceration.

9. I am currently incarcerated in the Washington Department of Correction for several counts of sexual abuse involving children. I was first arrested for a similar offense in the 1979 or 1980 in California and placed on probation. I was subsequently violated on probation for possession of pornography. I then transferred my probation via interstate compact to the state of Washington. I was arrested again in the 1980s for a similar offense (taking pictures of children) and served 27 months in a Correction Center and received treatment, I was arrested for my current offense in 1997 and have been incarcerated ever since. I do not expect to be ever released from prison.

CONVICTED CHILD MOLESTER AND RAPIST GETS 214 YEARS - JUDGE SAYS THE CASE 'CRIES OUT FOR AN EXCEPTIONAL SENTENCE'

The News Tribune - Friday, February 20, 1998

Author: Hector Castro; The News Tribune

Howard Smith Bennett apologized to his victims, pleaded for forgiveness and asked for mercy.

But the convicted rapist and child molester received one of Pierce County's longest sentences - 214 years behind bars.

"There's no question in my mind that this case cries out for an exceptional sentence," Superior Court Judge Brian Tollefson said Thursday.

Prosecutors could recall just one longer sentence in Pierce County history - a 337-year prison term given to Ricky Ray Thorp in 1994 for a shooting rampage that left one man dead.

"I just can't emphasize enough the horrendous nature of this crime," deputy prosecutor Greg Greer said to Tollefson in requesting the two-centuries-plus sentence.

Last December, Bennett pleaded guilty to 17 charges covering child rape, child molestation, sexual exploitation of a minor and possession of depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

His prison term reflects the total of the sentences for each of the 17 charges to which he pleaded guilty, if the sentences ran consecutively. Prosecutor John Ladenburg said the sentence reflects a case with multiple victims and multiple charges.

"Clearly, he needs to be put away forever so he never gets out," Ladenburg said of Bennett.

After Tollefson announced the sentence, relatives of some of Bennett's victims clapped and cheered.

"I just don't want him coming out to hurt anyone else again," said a woman whose grandson was one of Bennett's victims.

Prosecutors contend Bennett, who was a registered sex offender when the crimes occurred, befriended young neighborhood boys, had sex with them and videotaped many of the acts. The acts occurred between June 1995 and August 1997 at Bennett's home in the 12600 block of Bridgeport Way Southwest and involved five boys 7 to 15.

Bennett would lure the boys to his mobile home with offers of candy, toys and money, prosecutors said. He also was the neighborhood handyman and would fix the bicycles of some of the boys.

Bennett was arrested after two of the boys told their mothers about the activities.

Inside the man's home, detectives later found videotapes, sticks, ropes, paddles, a box containing a sexual device, boys' T-shirts, boys' briefs and nudist magazines.

Bennett, a thin man with gray hair, cried during the sentencing, even as he tried to apologize for his crimes.

The 51-year-old man, who once applied to be a Los Angeles police officer, admitted he took advantage of the children and their trust in him.

"I robbed them of their innocence," he said Thursday. "I sincerely apologize to my victims and their families and my family."

Bennett had few supporters in court Thursday, but one man stood up to speak for him. Bruce Cummins told Tollefson he was a friend of Bennett and believed Bennett was remorseful and ashamed of his actions.

He asked the judge to keep in mind that "no person is all bad, no person has only a dark side, no person is only deviant."

But the relatives of some of Bennett's victims were unmoved.

One woman, whose son was a victim of Bennett, asked the judge to sentence Bennett to life in prison.

"It's the only way that other children will be protected from him," she told the judge.

To the Clemency Board:

My name is Lisa Maas. I was Dan's group home mother in California. I am writing to you to ask you to please not execute Dan Cook for the reasons stated below.

As Dan's group home mother, I loved him and enjoyed him very much. We invited him to go on family trips with us. There has been so much focus on the "bad" in Dan that the good has been overlooked – and there was a lot of good.

As you know, his childhood was a nightmare. He suffered terrible abuse. This almost always leads to Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome and Disassociation. I have a degree in Social Work, and at the University I learned that with disassociation, trauma is blocked out of the mind. The memory is gone – sometimes for years and sometimes forever. it is a survival tool the brain engages so that person can continue to function in life. You probably already know all of this, but I wanted you to know that I understood it. For me, it is another tragedy for Dan to be scheduled to be executed when he has no memory of it. How hard would it be to not really know, in your heart, whether you have done what you are accused of or not. If Dan were to be kept in prison, he wouldn't be able to hurt anyone – which I'm sure is a concern of yours. He could build himself a life there. He would still be punished for the crime you believe he committed – I'm not asking you to set him free. I just don't understand the need to execute him. The Dan I know has so much good in him. Please consider this part of Dan also when making your decision. I love him and want him to live.

Thank You for giving me the opportunity to write and express how I feel. I appreciate your time and consideration. If you have any questions, please call me at 208-754-4876.

Arizona Board of Executive Clemency

Dear Esteemed Board Members:

I am writing to you with my most earnest and sincerest request for you to grant clemency to Daniel Cook, who is currently on Arizona's death row. Danny is my unofficial step-brother. My biological father, John F. Dunn married Wanda Cook, Danny's mother, when I was about twenty one.

I met Danny when he was a little boy before my Dad and Wanda got married. I remember how quiet and shy he and Debbie Cook, Danny's sister, were. I remember visiting my Dad's house in Morton Grove, Illinois. Danny and Debbie were there a few times with all the other children from my Dad's marriage to Janet (I believe Dad's fourth wife). I remember how I thought that Danny and Debbie were not treated with as much love and care as Dad's biological children. To me, they were like children in a fairy tale book.

My Dad met Wanda when she worked for him at "Yankee Burger," a very small restaurant on the north side of Chicago. I worked for Dad also at Yankee Burger when I was about 15 or 16. I remember Wanda worked there with me sometimes. I think I first met Danny and Debbie sometime between 1960 and 1966.

I went to college at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago with a scholarship so that I could become an art teacher. So, when I visited my Dad's house in Morton Grove, I would take paper, paint, and brushes and see if I could inspire the kids. I was fascinated by their art work, including the work by Danny and Debbie. But, Danny and Debbie kept more to themselves. They didn't seem as outgoing as Kenny and Kathy Dunn (Janet's kids).

I lost touch with Danny and Debbie because they weren't part of my Dad's new family after he married Wanda. Why, I ask myself, did Dad not want to care for Wanda's children also? My Dad is dead now, so I cannot ask him why he and Wanda didn't seem to want to take care of Danny and Debbie the way they took care of Frankie, Kenny, Kathy, and Bobby, and later George.

Later, when I was older I did ask my Dad about Danny and Debbie and I remember him saying something like he believed they had bad genes or were from bad seed. How ridiculous that seems to me now. What ideas did Dad plant in Danny's head?

I know my Dad didn't treat all his kids the same. For example, even my own brother, John, said that when Dad visited my Mom's house when he was about 5-7, I would get all the attention and John was told to babysit the other smaller kids.

I only heard about what happened to Danny last year. I had no idea that his life had gone down a very different path than the luckier kids in the family. I don't know what exactly happened. I want Danny to be able to live instead of being put to death. I wish I could someday see him and ask him if he remembers me. I wish that God forgives him for all the bad things that he did. I believe that Danny just didn't have a chance to grow up to be a good and responsible person because of his experiences with his Grandmother, mother, my Dad, foster homes, and who knows whatever else.

I think my Dad and Wanda basically rejected him. We are all just the sum total of our experiences and our souls. If Danny was deeply hurt, either physically or emotionally, as a child and/or teenager, his behavior or lack of respect for other people could be the result. Where were Wanda and my Dad?

Wanda and my Dad were probably just thinking about themselves! They were misguided individuals also. For example, my Dad suggested I sleep with him when I was about 20 or 21. I said no thank you, but I could never get his statement out of my head. I did try to forgive him though.

In the summer of 1977, my ex, my two kids, and I went to visit my Dad and Wanda at his house in Lake Havasu City. I caught my ex with Wanda in the kitchen in the middle of the night with his skimpy Speedo swim trunks on. Well, as soon as we returned to Illinois, my ex began searching for a new job in a "warmer climate." He was on a plane for an interview the same week we returned home. He changed jobs and moved to Atlanta almost immediately after his middle of the night "talk" with Wanda. I was left in Chicago to maintain and sell the house with two small kids in South Holland, Illinois during one of the coldest winters ever. When I finally moved the kids and myself to Atlanta in March 1978 to be with my ex, I found out about an affair that had begun.

My point is that I feel that Wanda and my Dad were part of the reason for Danny's awful deeds. I would like you to grant clemency so that somehow Danny can forgive everyone, enjoy what is left of his life, and the state of Arizona can just let Danny live out his natural life.

Please grant my request. It is very hard for me to say all these awful things about our family life and relationships. But the things I told you about did actually happen. There were probably much worse things that happened to Danny when he was small that I don't even know about. Please let Danny Cook live!

Thank you for your consideration of my request.

Sincerely,

Patricia Golembieski
