The parties should be prepared to discuss at oral argument whether there remains a case or controversy for which this court may grant effective relief. See Steffel v. Thompson, 415 U.S. 452, 460 n.10 (1974) (“The rule in federal cases is that an actual controversy must be extant at all stages of review, not merely at the time the complaint is filed.”) We understand the parties have notified the district court that they have “reached a settlement agreement that will resolve the In re Uber FCRA Litigation lawsuit.” Dist. Ct. Dkt #175 at 3. Specifically, the parties should be prepared to discuss if there is a settlement in this case, and if so, why this case is not now moot and why there is standing on appeal. See In re Cellular 101, Inc., 539 F.3d 1150, 1154-55 (9th Cir. 2008). The parties should also be prepared to discuss the impact, if any, of the proposed settlement in O'Connor v. Uber Technologies Inc., Case No. 13-cv-03826-EMC, on this appeal.
