ORDER

Before: CALLAHAN and HURWITZ, Circuit Judges, and MOLLOY,* District Judge.

Appellants' Motion Pursuant to Interim Circuit Rule 27-13(j) to Close Portions of Oral Argument is granted.

Appellants' time for oral argument in open session is reduced from 20 minutes to 15 minutes, with an additional 5 minutes ceded to the amici Attorneys General. Appellee's time for oral argument in open session is reduced from 25 minutes to 20 minutes.

* The Honorable Donald W. Molloy, United States District Judge for the District of Montana, sitting by designation.

At the conclusion of oral argument in open court, the court will temporarily adjourn to allow the courtroom to be cleared, and then will reconvene for 5 minutes of argument from each side in closed session.

Only Appellants and Appellee and their attorneys, the judges and their staff, and court personnel will be admitted to the closed session.

The court will adjourn at the conclusion of the closed session.
