

2018 - 2019 LRCC Officers

John "Jay" McEntire (Chair)

Jay McEntire is the senior litigator for the Federal Defenders of Eastern Washington and Idaho. He primarily represents clients charged with white collar offenses, as well as serious assaults and murders in Indian County. He also teaches trial advocacy, advanced legal writing, and advanced federal criminal procedure at Gonzaga University School of Law. Before joining the Federal Defenders, he spent two-and-a-half years clerking for the Honorable Edward F. Shea, U.S. District Court – Eastern District of Washington.

Doreen Spears Hartwell (Chair-Elect)

Doreen Spears Hartwell has a boutique law firm in Las Vegas, Nevada that specializes in employment law and business litigation. Her litigation practice includes employment law, trade secret, non-compete claims, real estate, trust-probate matters and a wide range of other business-related disputes. She has successfully defended employers in cases involving wrongful termination, breach of contract, discrimination and/or harassment in violation of Title VII, the ADA, the ADEA and state employment statutes. She also has substantial experience in successfully bringing breach of contract, trade secret, and non-compete claims on behalf of her clients.

Misty Perry Isaacson (Vice Chair)

Misty Perry Isaacson is an attorney with the firm of Pagter and Perry Isaacson, APLC. Ms. Perry Isaacson focuses her practice on bankruptcy and insolvency matters. She is a Certified Bankruptcy Specialist, certified by the State Bar of California and has over 20 years of experience in bankruptcy matters. She represents, or has represented Debtors, Creditors, Chapter 7 and 13 Trustees, the United States Trustee, and parties to lawsuits in bankruptcy proceedings and assists clients in non-bankruptcy financial workouts and collection issues. Ms. Perry Isaacson is admitted to practice before all California Courts, the Central, Southern, Northern, and Eastern Districts, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.