

search:

Children First. Always.

Parents and Families

Students

Employees

Community and Partners

DOE Home Page > About Us

About Us

- > About Our Schools
- > Funding Our Schools
- > Data About Schools
- > DOE Leadership
- > News About NYC Schools

Academics

Choices & Enrollment

Schools in the Community

Offices & Programs

Rules & Policies

Student Support, Safety & Activities

Performance & Accountability

About Us

About Our Schools

The New York City Department of Education is the largest system of public schools in the United States, serving about 1.1 million students in nearly 1,700 schools.

Funding Our Schools

New York City's public schools use an innovative funding system to create equitable learning environments for all students.

Data About Schools

So that we can be transparent to taxpayers and the public can hold us accountable for the quality of the City's public schools, we collect and distribute a great deal of data about our schools and operations.

Chancellor and the Leadership Team

Chancellor Dennis M. Walcott leads the Department in conjunction with the leadership team, the Panel for Educational Policy, and the Community & Citywide Education Councils.

News About NYC Schools

- Press Releases
- In Our Schools Today
- Communications and Media Relations Office
- Sign up for updates

Key Facts:

1.1 million students
~1,700 schools
369 new schools since 2002
75,000 teachers
$24 billion annual budget

Get Involved with NYC Schools

Parent Link

Get personalized academic information about your child.

Teacher Page

Resources for Teachers

Panel for Educational Policy

Sustainability Initiative

Careers

We're looking for great teachers, principals, administrators, executives, and more. Join us today.