Important Notes

1. The Unedited Local Climatological Data product consists of unedited hourly, daily, and monthly summaries for over 700 U.S. locations. Daily Summary forms are not available for all stations.
2. Some differences between First Order and Non First Order stations:
 - First order stations:
 - Elevation is available and will be displayed
 - Fahrenheit temperature variables will be displayed in whole degrees
 - Celsius temperature variables will be displayed in tenths of degrees
 - Non first order stations:
 - Daily summary forms are not available
 - Fahrenheit and Celsius variables will be displayed in whole degrees
 - Sea Level Pressure and Total Precipitation values are not available
 - Other elements/values will occasionally be unavailable
3. Want to know more about ASOS and AWOS stations? Visit this FAA web site for more information.
4. ASCII comma-delimited version is provided for those who desire to import the data into other applications.
5. The data provided are preliminary and have not gone through full, quality control processing.
6. Subscriptions provide access for one year from date of purchase. Subscriptions can be ordered for All Stations All Years or for a Single Station All Years. A subscription for ALL also allows downloading of ALL stations for each month in ASCII format. If you have purchased a subscription, you may access it using the Subscription Login screen.
