grams or more of a mixture or substance containing cocaine base (crack cocaine), in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(B)(iii). We have jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1291, and we affirm.

Williams contends that the sentence, which the district court imposed consecutive to an undischarged state sentence, is substantively unreasonable. The record reflects that the district court properly based the sentence on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), including Williams' violent criminal history, and that, in light of the totality of the circumstances, the sentence is not substantively unreasonable. See United States v. Carty, 520 F.3d 984, 993-94, 996 (9th Cir. 2008) (en banc).
