Before: SCHROEDER, PREGERSON, and RAWLINSON, Circuit Judges.

* This disposition is not appropriate for publication and is not precedent except as provided by 9th Cir. R. 36-3.

** The panel unanimously concludes this case is suitable for decision without oral argument. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a)(2).

Lange contends that the district court erred when it dismissed his petition on the grounds that he waived his right to challenge his sentence in any state or federal collateral proceeding. The record reflects that Lange waived his right to file the instant petition, which is necessarily a challenge to his sentence. The district court did not err in concluding that the petition is barred by a valid waiver of the right to file a collateral challenge to his sentence. See Washington v. Lampert, 422 F.3d 864, 869 (9th Cir. 2005).

DISMISSED.
