continue and pretermitted their applications for cancellation. We dismiss the petition for review.

Petitioners have informed the court that their U visa applications have been denied. Because the underlying relief sought has been denied, petitioners' challenge to the denial of the continuance to pursue that relief is moot. Contrary to petitioners' arguments, their due process claim fails because they have not shown prejudice. *See Lata v. We dismiss the petition for review as moot.

PETITION FOR REVIEW DISMISSED.
