MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Central District of California
Edward Rafeedie, District Judge, Presiding

Submitted March 8, 2011**

Before: FARRIS, LEAVY, and BYBEE, Circuit Judges.

California state prisoner Wilks Jackson appeals pro se from the district court's judgment denying his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 habeas petition. We dismiss.

his due process rights.

After briefing was completed in this case, this court held that a certificate of appealability is required to challenge the denial of parole. See Hayward v. Marshall, 603 F.3d 546, 554-55 (9th Cir. 2010) (en banc). Now the Supreme Court has held that the only federal right at issue in the parole context is procedural, and the only proper inquiry is what process the inmate received, not whether the state court decided the case correctly. See Swarthout v. Cooke, 131 S. Ct. 859 (2011) (per curiam). Because Jackson raises no procedural challenges regarding his parole hearing, a certificate of appealability cannot issue. Further, because Jackson has not made a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right, we decline to certify the remaining claims. See 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c).

DISMISSED.
