No. 10-50239

D.C. No. 3:03-cr-01110-MJL

MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of California
M. James Lorenz, District Judge, Presiding

Submitted April 20, 2011**

Before: RYMER, THOMAS, and PAEZ, Circuit Judges.

Robert Richard Evans appeals from the sentence imposed on re-sentencing.

We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291, and we affirm.

Evans contends that, because the district court did not orally impose a term of supervised release at re-sentencing, this court should remand so that the district court can correct the written judgment to exclude supervised release from the written judgment. The record reflects that the district court did not address at re-sentencing those portions of the sentence that, like the three-year term of supervised release, were neither discussed nor disputed by the parties. See United States vs. W.P.L., No. 10-30202, 2011 Westlaw 855859 at *1 n.1 (9th Cir. March 30, 2011) (explaining that, despite a variation between the oral and written sentencing pronouncements, there was no direct conflict between the two when viewed “in context”).
