U.S. COURT OF APPEALS

WESTERN RADIO SERVICES CO., an Oregon Corporation; et al.,

Plaintiffs - Appellants,

v.

UNITED STATES FOREST SERVICE,

Defendant - Appellee.

No. 10-35468

D.C. No. 6:09-cv-00872-HO

District of Oregon,
Eugene

ORDER

Before: TASHIMA, BEA, and IKUTA, Circuit Judges.

The Memorandum Disposition filed on May 16, 2011 is amended as follows:

1. On page 2 of the Memorandum Disposition, add the following text before the word "AFFIRM":

Western Radio's allegations that it was "unable to determine" if the radio tower project would interfere with its radio signals and that the project had the "potential" to disrupt wireless communications raise only "conjectural or hypothetical" concerns. Id. (internal quotation marks omitted). Likewise, Western Radio makes factual statements that the radio tower project would result in trees being cut down and vegetation replaced but does not allege an injury to itself (for example, that the project would diminish its use or enjoyment of the aesthetic and recreational values of the surrounding area), nor is such an injury self-evident. Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Envtl. Servs. (TOC), Inc., 528 U.S. 167, 181–82 (2000).

The panel has voted to deny the petition for panel rehearing. The petition for panel rehearing is DENIED. The Appellants' petition for rehearing en banc is still pending before this court.
