Munir contends that the district court procedurally erred by failing to address his arguments regarding the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) sentencing factors. He also contends that the sentence is substantively unreasonable. The record reflects that the district court did not procedurally err and, in light of the totality of the circumstances and the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) sentencing factors, the sentence is substantively reasonable. See United States v. Carty, 520 F.3d 984, 991-93 (9th Cir. 2008) (en banc).
