removal, and voluntary departure. Because the parties are familiar with the history of the case, we need not recount it here.

Following the BIA's decision in this case, our Court issued an opinion in Vasquez v. Holder, 602 F.3d 1003 (9th Cir. 2010), which may have a bearing on the outcome of the petition for review. Because the BIA has not had an opportunity to evaluate this case in light of Vasquez and because the BIA has not considered the applicability of 8 U.S.C. § 1227(a)(1)(H) to persons who lawfully entered the country, see id. at 1015 n.12, we remand the petition for review to the BIA for its reconsideration. Given the remand, we need not—and do not—express any opinion as to any issue raised by the parties.

REMANDED.
