reentry after deportation, in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and we affirm.

Morales-Hernandez contends that his counsel provided ineffective assistance by failing to cite relevant case law or brief an argument supporting a potential departure or variance based on the staleness of his criminal history. We decline to review Morales-Hernandez's ineffective assistance of counsel claims on direct appeal because this is not one of the "unusual cases where (1) the record on appeal is sufficiently developed to permit determination of the issue, or (2) the legal representation is so inadequate that it obviously denies a defendant his Sixth Amendment right to counsel." See United States v. Rahman, 642 F.3d 1157, 1159-60 (9th Cir. 2011). We therefore leave open the possibility that Morales-Hernandez might raise an ineffective assistance of counsel claim in collateral proceedings. See id.
