jury-trial conviction for health care fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1347. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291, and we affirm.

Rezabala contends that the district court violated his Sixth Amendment rights when it applied a 14-level upward adjustment under U.S.S.G. § 2B1.1(b)(1)(H) without submitting the issue to a jury for a finding of loss beyond a reasonable doubt. He also argues that this error was not harmless because the evidence in the record permits a reasonable doubt regarding the amount of loss that his offense caused. This claim fails. See United States v. Hickey, 580 F.3d 922, 932 (9th Cir. 2009) (“[T]he Sixth Amendment does not require that the loss be proved to a jury beyond a reasonable doubt.”).
