MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California
Sheila K. Oberto, Magistrate Judge, Presiding

Submitted November 19, 2013

Before: CANBY, TROTT, and THOMAS, Circuit Judges.

California state prisoner Norris Virgil Lee appeals pro se from the district court's judgment dismissing his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action alleging deliberate indifference to his medical needs. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C § 1291. We review de novo a dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A. Resnick v. Hayes, 213 F.3d 443, 447 (9th Cir. 2000). We reverse and remand.

* This disposition is not appropriate for publication and is not precedent except as provided by 9th Cir. R. 36-3.

The district court erred in dismissing Lee’s action because Lee alleged that, despite his repeated pleas, defendant consciously and deliberately disregarded a serious risk to his health arising from diabetes by refusing to administer his prescribed and regularly scheduled insulin injection. See Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S. 825, 837, 845 (1994) (prison officials act with deliberate indifference when they know of and disregard an excessive risk to inmate health; prisoner need not await a tragic event before obtaining relief for being exposed to danger).

REVERSED and REMANDED.
