Board of Immigration Appeals

Submitted December 17, 2013

Before: GOODWIN, WALLACE, and GRABER, Circuit Judges.

Leticia Noveron De Salgado, a native and citizen of Mexico, petitions pro se for review of the Board of Immigration Appeals’ (“BIA”) order denying her motion to reopen removal proceedings based on ineffective assistance of counsel.

denial of a motion to reopen, and review de novo questions of law. Mohammed v. Gonzales, 400 F.3d 785, 791-92 (9th Cir. 2005). We deny the petition for review.

The BIA did not abuse its discretion in denying Noveron De Salgado's motion to reopen where she failed to establish prejudice arising from any alleged ineffective assistance by her former counsel. See id. at 793-94 (“[P]rejudice results when the performance of counsel was so inadequate that it may have affected the outcome of the proceedings.”).

In light of this disposition, we need not reach Noveron De Salgado's remaining contentions.

PETITION FOR REVIEW DENIED.
