No. 13-16258

MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California
Barbara McAuliffe, Magistrate Judge, Presiding

Submitted March 10, 2014

Before: PREGERSON, LEAVY, and MURGUIA, Circuit Judges.

California state prisoner Raymond Alford Bradford appeals pro se from the district court’s judgment denying leave to proceed in forma pauperis in his 42

* This disposition is not appropriate for publication and is not precedent except as provided by 9th Cir. R. 36-3.

 Bradford consented to proceed before a magistrate judge. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

 The panel unanimously concludes this case is suitable for decision without oral argument. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a)(2).

U.S.C. § 1983 action alleging constitutional violations. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291. We review de novo the district court’s interpretation and application of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), Andrews v. Cervantes, 493 F.3d 1047, 1052 (9th Cir. 2007), and for an abuse of discretion a denial of leave to proceed in forma pauperis, O’Loughlin v. Doe, 920 F.2d 614, 616 (9th Cir. 1990). We affirm.

The district court did not abuse its discretion by denying leave to proceed in forma pauperis because at least three of Bradford’s prior § 1983 cases were dismissed on the basis that they were frivolous or failed to state a claim, and Bradford did not provide sufficient allegations to show that he was “under imminent danger of serious physical injury.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g); see also Andrews, 493 F.3d at 1055 (explaining that the exception to the three-strikes rule applies only “if the complaint makes a plausible allegation that the prisoner faced ‘imminent danger of serious physical injury’ at the time of filing”).

AFFIRMED.
