No. 13-10522

D.C. No. 2:12-cr-00398-JAD

MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Nevada
Jennifer A. Dorsey, District Judge, Presiding

Submitted September 23, 2014

Before: W. FLETCHER, RAWLINSON, and CHRISTEN, Circuit Judges.

Adrienne Estrada-Cruz appeals from the district court’s judgment and challenges the 46-month sentence imposed following his guilty-plea conviction for being a deported alien found unlawfully in the United States, in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291, and we affirm.

* This disposition is not appropriate for publication and is not precedent except as provided by 9th Cir. R. 36-3.

 The panel unanimously concludes this case is suitable for decision without oral argument. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a)(2).

Estrada-Cruz contends that his sentence is substantively unreasonable in light of his history and characteristics, and because he was motivated to return to the United States to support his family. The district court did not abuse its discretion in imposing Estrada-Cruz's sentence. See Gall v. United States, 552 U.S. 38, 51 (2007). The sentence at the bottom of the Guidelines range is substantively reasonable in light of the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) sentencing factors and the totality of the circumstances, including Estrada-Cruz's history of drug-related offenses and two prior removals. See id.

AFFIRMED.
