MEMORANDUM*

On Petition for Review of an Order of the Board of Immigration Appeals

Submitted November 18, 2015

Before: TASHIMA, OWENS, and FRIEDLAND, Circuit Judges.

Noemi Amaya-Hersano, a native and citizen of Honduras, petitions for review of the Board of Immigration Appeals' ("BIA") order dismissing her appeal from an immigration judge's decision denying her application for withholding of removal. Our jurisdiction is governed by 8 U.S.C. § 1252. We dismiss in part and deny in part the petition for review.

We lack jurisdiction to consider the new social group and political opinion contentions Amaya-Hersano presents in her opening brief, because she did not raise these to the agency. See Barron v. Ashcroft, 358 F.3d 674, 677-78 (9th Cir. 2004) (no jurisdiction over legal claims not presented in administrative proceedings below). Thus, Amaya-Hersano's withholding of removal claim fails.

Amaya-Hersano does not challenge the BIA's findings that she failed to demonstrate she was targeted on account of her membership in a particular social group consisting of her family and that she could not reasonably relocate within Honduras if returned. See Martinez-Serrano v. INS, 94 F.3d 1256, 1259-60 (9th Cir. 1996) (issues not specifically raised and argued in a party's opening brief are waived).

PETITION FOR REVIEW DENIED in part; DISMISSED in part.
