Federal Bar Association Program Focuses on Operation of Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals

SAN FRANCISCO – Lawyers interested in the operations of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit will benefit from attending an upcoming program organized by the Federal Bar Association of the Northern District of California.

"An Inside View of the Ninth Circuit" provides information on court operations, processes and resources. The program will be held May 15, 2013, beginning at 4:30 p.m. in Courtroom One of the James R. Browning U.S. Courthouse, 95 7th St., San Francisco.

Court presenters include Molly C. Dwyer, clerk of court; Lisa B. Fitzgerald, chief deputy clerk; Claudia L. Bernard, chief circuit mediator; Allison Taylor, a staff attorney assigned to the motions and pro se units; and Peter L. Shaw, appellate commissioner. Attorneys Christopher D. Sullivan and James J. Brosnahan will serve as moderators.

Admission to the event, which includes a reception following the program, is $20 for FBA members and $25 for all other attendees. Law students are admitted free. CLE credit of 1 hour is available. Reservations are required using the form below.
