NOTICE REGARDING ORAL ARGUMENTS

The Panel intends to conduct this calendar in person following Circuit COVID protocols. Please see the Announcements Section of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals Website <https://www.ca9.uscourts.gov> for details.

Those who will be arguing will have the option to participate by video or in person. Please return your calendar acknowledgment as soon as possible, and not later than Friday, December 30, 2022, to have time to test the zoom link. Please indicate on the calendar acknowledgment form whether you intend to appear in person or by video. Your timely response is essential to allow sufficient time to provide testing and connection information to those who will appear by video.

Additional Information Regarding Video Appearance:

Appearance by video may be done using any type of camera-equipped computer device; special video conferencing equipment is not necessary. If you do not have such equipment, please contact the BAP as soon as possible for alternate arrangements.

The Clerk's office will contact by email those who intend to argue with connection information for testing and for argument. Be sure to include the best email address or addresses to send such instructions. (Please feel free to include additional email addresses.)

Those who intend to argue are asked to conduct a test connection with the 9th Circuit's testing desk which is open from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm Pacific Time on Wednesdays January 4 and 11, 2023, and from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon and 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm Pacific Time on Thursdays January 5 and 12, 2023. Additional testing information will be sent via email after your calendar acknowledgment is received.

Video participation is limited to counsel and pro se parties who will be arguing. Those not arguing including co-counsel and clients will be able to watch via live-stream accessible via the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals website.

Thank you for your cooperation.
