

Invitation for Public Comment
on the Reappointment of U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Daniel P. Collins

The current term of the Honorable Daniel P. Collins, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Arizona, is due to expire in January 2027. The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit is considering the reappointment of Judge Collins to a new 14-year term of office. The Court invites comments from the bar and public about Judge Collins's performance as a bankruptcy judge. The duties of a bankruptcy judge are specified by statute, and include conducting hearings and trials, making final determinations, and entering orders and judgments.

Members of the bar and public are invited to submit comments concerning Judge Collins for consideration by the Court of Appeals in determining whether or not to reappoint him. Anonymous responses will not be accepted. However, any information identifying the respondent or any specific case information will be redacted from any report transmitted to the Court of Appeals.

Comments should be received no later than Monday, November 17, 2025, to the following address:
