MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Arizona
James A. Teilborg, District Judge, Presiding

Submitted October 22, 2018

Before: SILVERMAN, GRABER, and GOULD, Circuit Judges.

Arizona state prisoner Paul Anthony Robledo, AKA Paul Robledo, AKA
Paul A. Robledo, appeals pro se from the district court's summary judgment in his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action alleging deliberate indifference to his serious medical needs. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291. We review de novo.

Toguchi v. Chung, 391 F.3d 1051, 1056 (9th Cir. 2004). We affirm.

The district court properly granted summary judgment because Robledo failed to raise a genuine dispute of material fact as to whether defendant knew of and disregarded an excessive risk to Robledo's mental health. See id. at 1057-60 (a prison official is deliberately indifferent only if he or she knows of and disregards an excessive risk to an inmate's health; medical malpractice, negligence, or a difference of opinion concerning the course of treatment does not amount to deliberate indifference).

We reject as unsupported by the record Robledo's contention that the district court failed to consider his motion for reconsideration under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(3).

Robledo's motion to file an oversized reply brief (Docket Entry No. 78) is granted. The Clerk shall file the reply brief at Docket Entry No. 80.

All other pending motions are denied.

AFFIRMED.
