POSITION OVERVIEW

The Jury Supervisor oversees all aspects of jury administration for the U.S. District Court, maintaining the integrity of the court’s jury management system. This role involves:

- Supervising, coaching, and developing a team of five jury clerks across the San Francisco, Oakland, and San Jose divisional offices, ensuring high performance and adherence to policies.
- Ensuring the smooth execution of the juror qualification and selection process through close coordination with judges, court staff, and outside vendors.
- Improving public perception and experience of jury service by addressing prospective juror concerns, minimizing inconvenience, and fostering a strong customer-service culture.
- Collecting and analyzing data for juror payment, national reporting requirements, and evaluating the efficiency of jury management procedures.

Primary duties:

- Oversee jury clerks in qualifying, summoning, and managing petit and grand jurors, following statutory requirements and the court’s Jury Plan.
- Train and supervise jury clerks to provide excellent customer service, conduct engaging juror orientations, and handle requests for deferral, excusal, or special accommodations.
- Coordinate with judges, courtroom deputies, and agencies such as the U.S. Marshals Service to ensure the smooth operation of all jury selections and trials, including high-profile or lengthy cases.
- Act as liaison for grand juries between the U.S. Attorney’s Office, the chief judge, and employers of grand jurors.
- Analyze jury management processes to improve efficiency, reduce costs, and maximize juror utilization while minimizing inconvenience.
- Optimize the court’s online jury management system and electronic juror applications, including developing and maintaining jury-related content for the court’s websites.
- Develop goals, objectives, procedures, and work standards for the jury unit, ensuring compliance with policies and regulations.
- Provide guidance to judges and senior management on jury-related court policies, offering analysis and interpretation of rules, directives, and operational improvements.
- Manage annual building of the master jury wheel with third-party vendor adhering to statutory requirements and Jury Plan and maintain wheel through regular data scrubs.
