POSITION OVERVIEW

The courtroom deputy clerk provides administrative support in and out of the courtroom. This position calls for accuracy, diplomacy, and sensitivity in dealing with judges, attorneys, members of government agencies, and the general public. Successful courtroom deputy clerks work with meticulous attention to detail, create systems to organize and prioritize tasks, and communicate with calm confidence. Periodically, other duties may be assigned.

Primary duties: Courtroom deputy clerks are responsible for managing judges' cases by:

- Scheduling hearings, trials, and conferences, and coordinating presence in courtroom of parties, attorneys, jurors, other court staff, and members of other court-related agencies;
- Attending court and managing the orderly flow of court proceedings by setting up the courtroom, assuring presence of necessary participants, administer oaths, and managing exhibits;
- Creating documents to record pertinent results of courtroom proceedings by taking notes of proceedings and rulings to produce minute entries;
- Docketing court orders in the electronic docketing system and monitoring the filing of documents to ensure timely filing by parties;
- Responding to inquiries from attorneys, self-represented litigants, agencies, and the public, and acting as liaison between these individuals and the judge;
- Informing judge and staff of case progress;
- Other duties as assigned.
